

Australasian Society for Intellectual Disability

Presents

'Living the life I want': A guide for planning workshop

ASID NSW/ACT in partnership with Intellectual Disability & Behaviour Support Program (IDBS, UNSW), Intellectual Disability Rights Service (IDRS) and Centre for Disability Studies (CDS) is hosting a practical workshop based on the guide authored and published by the IDBS team.

This workshop will introduce participants to key concepts in supporting a person with intellectual disability and complex support needs to set goals and make a person-centred plan. This practical workshop is built around the use of the 'Living the life I want': A guide to planning resource. Participants will receive a copy of the resource to use in their work.

Presented by: Dr Angela Dew, who is a Senior Research Fellow and Research Lead with the Intellectual Disability Behaviour Support (IDBS) program at UNSW and has over 30 years working in the disability field in direct service, management, teaching and research roles.

Date: Tuesday 24th April 2018

Time: 10:30am – 2:30pm

Venue: Room 440
New Law School Annexe (F10A)
University of Sydney

To register or find out more: <http://www.asid.asn.au/events>

This event is a partnership between

