WRITING AN ARTICLE FOR IDA

Articles are read by a range of people so please avoid the use of jargon and acronyms (always provide the name in full for the first time).

Use size 12 font. Don't worry about specific indenting or spacing as your article will be set up by the publisher. If you use references please use APA 6th style. An example of a journal article and book chapter are as follows:

> Johnson, H., Solarsh, B., Bloomberg, K., West, D. (2016). Supporting people with complex communication needs through community capacity building: the Communication Access Network. Tizard Learning Disability Review. 21, 130-139.

> Iacono, T., & Cologon, K. (2014). Inclusion of children through AAC supports In K. Cologon (Ed.), Inclusive education in the early years Melbourne: Oxford Press.

Write your article separate to your email. Include a title on your article, your name or a contact, work position and website (if appropriate), an email address and a clear head and shoulders photo.

For on theme articles of 1400-1900 words include an abstract of up to 65 words; References maximum of 100 words and a summary box 100 words – (dot points of key messages). For shorter articles omit the abstract but include a summary box.

We are also interested in book, film, theatre and art reviews, please keep these to 300 words but include a photo relating to the event.

Please see past issues of IDA on the ASID website for examples of different types of article accepted. Please contact the editor idaeditor@asid.asn.au with any questions.
