

Continuing the Conversation

Where is intellectual disability in the NDIS?

What is this discussion about?

In October 2022 Australasian Society for Intellectual Disability (ASID) WA held a 'conversation' with members and others interested in research related to people with intellectual disability.

For our next conversation, join well-known researchers/leaders in the field to talk about what is important for people with intellectual disability in the NDIS, and what are the critical research questions? Following these short presentations, ASID members and guests will be invited to join discussions.

The Speakers

Dr Leighton Jay – Independent Advisory Council member NDIS

Claire Faulkner – Team Leader, NDIS Appeals Team, Legal Aid WA

Kane Blackman – CEO Good Sammy Enterprises

Nathan Halls – Assistant Director Participant Solutions NDIS

Professor Bronwyn Myers – Curtin enAble Institute, Curtin University

Facilitator – Prof Angus Buchanan – Curtin University

Members, families, researchers, service providers, anyone with an interest in intellectual disability are welcome to attend.

Monday 3 April

4 - 6pm (AWST)

City West Lotteries House

2 Delhi Street West Perth

Complimentary

Please contact the ASID Office if you have any questions at secretariat@asid.asn.au

Visit asid.asn.au to register